Eating in New York City

New York City is filled with more restaurants than you could visit in a lifetime. Whether you want that authentic dish that mom makes back home or you want to try something completely new, the NYC culinary selection is unlike anywhere else in the world. Below, you'll find a list of some of the best restaurants in the area. Once you've tried them all or want to explore more, you'll find that there's almost always a new, hot restaurant popping up in NYC to try.

Chinatown

Manhattan Chinatown is one of nine Chinatown neighborhoods in New York City, as well as one of twelve in the New York metropolitan area, which contains the largest ethnic Chinese population outside of Asia. The other Chinatowns are located in the boroughs of Queens, Brooklyn, Nassau County, as well as in Edison and Parsippany-Troy Hills in New Jersey.
